Comentarios públicos del agente: Mirador del Cielo | Casa Coral Del Atlantico At the very top of Mirador del Cielo, where the sky feels closer and the most soaring ocean views stretch endlessly below, there stands a residence unlike any other. This is not just a house. It is three homes in one—a private estate built for legacy, for gathering, and for living beautifully across generations. Set on an extraordinary 5,000 m² (almost 1 cuerda) lot, with 15,000 sq ft of construction, this landmark estate unfolds across three levels, each designed with intention, elegance, and vision. From the moment you arrive, you feel it. The quiet power of space. The light pouring through 12-foot ceilings. The calm of marble floors underfoot. The warmth of custom mahogany (caoba) built-ins, crafted to last for generations. And everywhere you turn the ocean is there. Not just a view, but a presence. A horizon that follows you from room to room. Sunrises that pour gold across the floors. Life flows beautifully on the main level. Here, mornings begin in the breakfast nook with ocean views. Dinners turn into long conversations with the sea as your backdrop. All four bedrooms are en suite, each with its own bathroom and walk-in closet, including a master suite with his & hers walk-in closets. Below, the first level offers independence and flexibility: 3 bedrooms, 1 full bath, laundry room, and a kitchenette already prepared with plumbing and electrical—perfect for guests, in-laws, or a full private apartment. Above, the third level is where the day slows down. A bonus room with living area, wet bar, full bath, balcony, and terrace—This is where sunsets are toasted. Where the new year's fireworks are breathtaking. Beyond beauty, the estate delivers peace of mind: • Full security camera system • Electric rolling storm shutters • 50k power generator • Elevator • Prepared for pool installation • 2-car garage • Full gated community Every detail is elevated: • Premium furniture, furnishings and appliances included • Laundry room • Fruit trees: Árbol de pana and carambola This is the largest property in square footage and lot size in Mirador del Cielo, available at market price, backed by a previous appraisal of $5M ten years ago, reflecting today's even higher market value. Mirador del Cielo is not a place you move into. It's a place you arrive at. A landmark home. A legacy property. A once-in-a-generation opportunity. Proof of funds or bank preapproval is required for showing.
