Comentarios públicos del agente: This impressive three-story concrete building on the renowned Malecón La Esperanza in Vieques offers approximately 5,184 sq. ft. of space and sits on a spacious 807 sq. meter lot. With unparalleled panoramic views of the Caribbean Sea from every level, including a rooftop terrace on the third floor, this property has the potential to become the premier dining or entertainment destination in the area. The first level features a kitchen space (not equipped) and a customer restroom, thoughtfully designed for convenience. The second level offers a bar area and additional restrooms for clients, ensuring a comfortable experience for patrons. It also includes a private office with a full bathroom, providing essential facilities for management. The third-floor rooftop is perfect for creating a signature dining or lounge experience, with breathtaking sunset views and a memorable ambiance that enhances the property's appeal. This property's layout and prime location make it ideal for a range of business ventures, particularly a flagship restaurant or bar that can take full advantage of the vibrant atmosphere and ocean views of El Malecón La Esperanza. The spacious backyard offers additional development potential, whether for a guesthouse or Airbnb units, making this an excellent investment for entrepreneurs looking to maximize revenue streams. Its location in a high-traffic area ensures steady business from both tourists and locals alike. Built entirely in concrete, this property is a solid and durable investment, ready for customization to suit your business vision. The owner is open to flexible seller financing, offering a unique opportunity to investors and entrepreneurs eager to establish themselves in Vieques' growing hospitality and tourism market.
