Comentarios públicos del agente: Experience elevated urban living in this fully remodeled 2-bedroom, 2.5-bathroom apartment located in the well-established Condominio Torre del Norte in Ciudadela. Designed with upscale modern finishes throughout, this residence offers an open-concept layout complemented by breathtaking panoramic views of the city skyline, Santurce Park, and the ocean. The expansive living and dining areas flow effortlessly into a designer kitchen featuring a large quartz island, sleek cabinetry, and premium finishes—ideal for both entertaining and everyday living. The primary suite boasts a custom walk-in closet with a modern, boutique-style design, creating a refined and highly functional private retreat. The laundry area has been thoughtfully designed with built-in countertops and a utility sink, adding convenience and practicality without compromising style. Once completed, the apartment will feature a Sonos sound system installed in all bedrooms and the primary bathroom, creating an immersive audio experience throughout the residence. Additionally, custom furniture from Restoration Hardware is currently on order, further elevating the sophistication and comfort of the space. Living in Ciudadela means enjoying a true urban lifestyle with resort-style comforts, including a swimming pool, 24/7 security, and a full backup electric generator providing power to the entire unit. Walkable access to dining, shopping, green spaces, and cultural venues completes this exceptional opportunity for upscale city living.
