Comentarios públicos del agente: This idilic property has 6.5 acres of land that extends south from the quiet, up and coming neighborhood of El Pilón. Among its many interesting features, the property has two structures, which are both in fairly good condition and can be easily renovated. Behind the structures, passes a charming creek and elevates to a higher point that offers privacy and views of the south. The varied terrain has beautiful mature trees including tamarind, mango, yuca, yam, cacao and other tropicals, original to this finca. One structure is a fantastic two bedroom mid century style home with an expansive open living and kitchen area. With breeze blocks and traditional rejas throughout, this will be an architectural gem when restored. The second structure is a two-story home divided into two separate apartments. Initially a colmado/bar, the lower level has a large open area, one bed, one bath apartment with an outdoor terrace and parking. The second level apartment has 3 rooms, one bath, a balcony and rooftop access. This would be a fantastic home but could be a great opportunity for a business or guest house, allowing you enough space to build a home on the same lot while still having your privacy.
