Comentarios públicos del agente: This breathtaking property atop the Jajome Alto mountain range in Cayey, PR is an ideal getaway. It is located at 2,500 feet above sea level and along the Ruta Panorámica (Panoramic Route). The private site provides breathtaking 360 degree views of the surrounding tropical forests and a microclimate with vegetation similar to that of the El Yunque rainforest but with cooler temperatures. With over one acre, the property has an existing structure (âshellâ) in early construction stages and finished plans for a single family residence designed by Fuster + Architects. A preliminary design and initial endorsement from the Department of Tourism for an off-grid eco lodge is also available. Whether you are seeking a vacation retreat, an exclusive residence, or are envisioning a venture into eco tourism, this property is an excellent option. Both the seller and architectural firm are available to assist with the completion of the project.
